 - b.  - (2) The applicant shall not provide legal services:

 - d. The committee may request an informal interview with the applicant for renewal, pursuant to subsection (D)(5)(c)(2)(b), to establish if additional information or an explanation of the information provided by the applicant is needed to determine if the applicant continues to meet the qualifications for licensure in this section.
 - e. The license of a license holder who does not supply a complete renewal application and payment of the renewal fee in the specified time and manner to division staff shall expire as of the expiration date. Division staff shall treat any renewal application received after the expiration date as a new application, except when the license holder requests to file an untimely renewal application pursuant to subsection (F)(2)(b).

3. Additional Information. Before renewal of licensure, division staff may require additional information reasonably necessary to determine if the applicant continues to meet the qualifications specified in this section, which may include:
 - a. Background information, pursuant to subsection (E)(1)(a); and

The notice shall include the committee's reasons for the denial of renewal of licensure and the right of the applicant to a hearing, pursuant to subsection (F)(4)(d).
 - d. An applicant is entitled to a hearing, on the decision to deny renewal of licensure if the disciplinary clerk receives a written request for a hearing within fifteen days after the date of the notice of denial. The applicant is the moving party at the hearing and has the burden of proof. The provisions of ACJA § 7-201(H)(12) through (23) and (H)(25) through (27) apply regarding procedures for hearing and appeal.

Any compliance lawyer who fails to comply with this section, including any failure to report any facts or matters reasonably believed to amount to a substantial breach of the regulatory requirements of this code or the ethical and professional obligations of lawyers, in addition to other possible sanctions, may be suspended on an interim basis pursuant to Rule 61, Rules of Supreme Court.

H. Discipline.

1. Rules. The supreme court rules governing complaints, investigations, and disciplinary proceedings against Arizona licensed attorneys are applicable to alternative business structures and its members under this section, except as otherwise stated in this section.
2. Sanctions. Misconduct by an ABS or its members shall be grounds for imposition of one or more of the following types of sanctions:
 - a. Revocation. Revocation of an ABS's license may be imposed by judgment and order entered by the supreme court, a hearing panel, or the presiding disciplinary judge. Any order of revocation must state a fixed period of time a license is revoked before an ABS can seek re-licensure.
 - b. Suspension. Suspension of an ABS may be imposed by judgment and order entered by the supreme court, a hearing panel, or the presiding disciplinary judge for an appropriate fixed period of time not to exceed 3 years. Suspension of an ABS license prohibits the ABS from accepting new legal services clients and requires notification pursuant to subsection (H)(4). An order of the supreme court, a hearing panel, or the presiding disciplinary judge may specify additional restrictions on the activities of an ABS during the term of suspension. An ABS whose activities are suspended shall remain suspended until the court enters an order reinstating the ABS to its full business capacity in Arizona or upon order of the presiding disciplinary judge pursuant to subsection (E)(8)(b).
 - c. Reprimand. A reprimand may be imposed by judgment and order entered by the supreme court, a hearing panel, or the presiding disciplinary judge.

The conditions of probation shall be stated in writing, shall be specific, understandable and enforceable, and may include restitution, disgorgement, and assessment of costs and expenses.
 - (3) The presiding disciplinary judge may appoint a monitor to supervise the ABS during a period of probation. The cost of the monitor shall be paid by the ABS.
 - (4) The monitor shall report to the state bar, which shall be responsible for supervising the respondent ABS during the probationary period. Bar counsel shall report material violations of the terms of probation to the presiding disciplinary judge by filing a notice of noncompliance with the disciplinary clerk and serving respondent with a copy of the notice. The notice of noncompliance shall include verification or separate affidavit upon personal knowledge stating sufficient facts to support the allegations of material violations of the terms of probation. Respondent shall have 10 days after service of the notice to file a response. Upon filing the notice of noncompliance, the presiding disciplinary judge may (a) issue an order declining to proceed with the notice; (b) issue an order setting the matter for status conference; or (c) issue an order setting a hearing within 30 days to determine if the terms of probation have been violated and if an additional sanction should be imposed. In a probation violation hearing, the state bar must prove a violation by preponderance of the evidence. At the end of the probation term, bar counsel shall prepare and forward a notice to the presiding disciplinary judge regarding the respondent's completion or non-completion of the imposed terms.
- f. Monetary Penalties. The supreme court, a hearing panel, or the presiding disciplinary judge may order the license holder to pay any of the following monetary obligations:

- 3. Enforcement. Execution and other post-judgment remedies shall be governed by Supreme Court Rule 60(d).
- 4. Notice to Clients and Adverse Parties. Within 10 days after the date of an order or judgment issued by the presiding disciplinary judge, a hearing panel, or the supreme court imposing discipline and sanctions, or the date of surrender of license, an ABS whose license was revoked or suspended or who has surrendered its license, shall notify the following persons by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, of the order of judgment or surrender, and of the fact that the ABS is disqualified from providing legal services after the effective date of same:

Respondent shall deliver to all clients being represented in pending legal matters any papers or other property to which they are entitled and shall notify them, and any counsel representing them, of a suitable time and place where the papers and other property may be obtained, calling attention to any urgency for obtaining the papers or other property. The respondent shall deliver all files and records in pending legal matters to the client, notwithstanding any claim of outstanding payment for services.

any client all matters that were pending on the entry date. If a judgment or order permits the ABS to provide legal services under supervision of the state bar, respondent may only provide those services allowed by the judgment or order. Respondent shall refund any part of fees paid in advance which have not been earned.

8. Affidavit Filed with Presiding Disciplinary Judge and Court. Within 10 days after the effective date of the judgment of revocation or suspension, respondent shall file with the disciplinary clerk and with the supreme court an affidavit showing:

ABS itself, or its non-lawyer members, who each have the same responsibility for ensuring ethical legal services for clients. Members of an ABS who are members of the state bar bear the responsibility of the ethical and professional obligations of the profession as well as the standards stated herein. An individual failure or breach may warrant action itself or as a pattern of conduct.

1. Code of Conduct for ABS's. In addition to the requirements of subsection (G)(2), each ABS and its authorized persons must adhere to the following minimum standards of conduct.
 - a. Shall not allow the legal representation of clients, if the representation involves a conflict of interest as governed by Supreme Court Rule 42, ERs 1.7, 1.8, 1.9, 1.10, 1.11, 1.13 and 1.18.
 - b. Shall not take any action or engage in activity that interferes with the professional independence of lawyers or others authorized to provide legal services.
 - c. Shall ensure that legal services are delivered with reasonable diligence and promptness.
 - d. Shall not take an action or engage in any activity that misleads or attempts to mislead a client, a court, or others, either by the ABS's own acts or omissions, or those of its members or employees, or by allowing or being complicit in the acts or omissions of others.
 - e. Shall maintain effective governance structures, arrangements, systems, and controls to ensure:
 - (1) Compliance with the requirements of supreme court rules and this section; and
 - (2) Managers, economic interest holders, decision-makers, employees, or anyone employed, associated with, or engaged do not cause or substantially contribute to a breach of the ethical rules of Supreme Court Rule 42 or this section.
 - f. Must maintain records to demonstrate compliance with its obligations under the supreme court rules and this section.
 - g. Must monitor financial stability and business viability. When an ABS becomes aware it will cease to operate, it must affect an orderly wind-down of business activities and comply with the requirements for surrender of an ABS license in this section.
 - h. Must monitor and manage all material risks to the business, including those which arise from connected businesses or connected services.
 - i. Must hold property of legal services clients separate from the property of the ABS. The requirements of Supreme Court Rules 42, ER 1.15 and Rule 43 are applicable to all legal services-related client property.

- j. An ABS, its members and employees must cooperate with the Administrative Office of Courts, Committee on Alternative Business Structures, the State Bar of Arizona, the presiding disciplinary judge, and any court who oversees and investigates concerns related to its delivery of legal services.
 - k. Must respond promptly to the Administrative Office of Courts, Committee on Alternative Business Structures, the state bar, the presiding disciplinary judge, and the supreme court and provide full and accurate information and documentation in response to any request or investigation.
 - l. Shall not attempt to prevent any person from providing information or documents in response to any request or investigation.
 - m. Must act promptly to take any remedial action requested by the state bar, the Administrative Office of Courts, the presiding disciplinary judge, and the supreme court.
 - n. Shall assure that all authorized persons and employees, in matters pertaining to legal services, perform all duties and functions in the manner ethically required of a lawyer pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 42.

In addition to the requirements of subsection (G)(3)(b) and Supreme Court Rule 42, a designated compliance lawyer is responsible individually for compliance by the ABS and authorized persons, including any managers, economic interest holders, or decision-makers of the ABS, with this code of conduct. Failures or breaches of this responsibility may subject a compliance lawyer to discipline.
